ALEXANDRIA REFORM CLUB.—A large crowd assembled at the rooms of the Alexandria Reform Club, last night, where a meeting was held, with John W. Henderson in the chair, and George W. Maxwell and Henry M. Folz secretaries.

After the transaction of a considerable routine business, Mr. Lewis McKeezie, under the head of "The good of the club," spoke of the advantages of coffee houses in other cities, and thought that if one could be established here, by a good clean person it would pay. He said that he would take $10 worth of stock in the new enterprise for one, and supposed that one hundred dollars could be easily raised to inaugurate the movement.

Rev. L. H. Pease, Dr. Cox and Rev. W. K. Boyle also thought the suggestion was a good one, and the latter gentleman hoped the result would result in the establishment of some such place.

Rev. W. K. Boyle alluded to the rumor on the streets that he had been knocked down because of his devotion to the cause of temperance, and said that while there was no truth in the story he would be willing to be knocked down, because it would be the very best argument that could be advanced in favor of the temperance cause. They had failed in their endeavor to obtain a local option law for Alexandria, but he hoped the day would come when it would be considered a disgrace to sell whiskey. He hoped the members would not rest satisfied until every drinking man was saved, and the rum traffic banished from our midst.

Dr. Cox also urged the members to increased activity in the cause of temperance, and hoped that every man would pledge himself anew to use his best endeavors to stop the sale of liquor.

Benjamin Good moved that Rev. Mr. Pease be requested to repeat his lecture on "Mosaic manna," before the club.

Mr. McKeezie said he did not like sixty minute sermons, and if the lecture was not a long one he would move that it be delivered next Friday night, which motion was adopted.

After the recital of the story of the "Call's Tail," in a very interesting manner by Mr. Luther D. Harrison, the club adjourned.

THE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The March meeting of the Teachers' Institute for the city and vicinity of Alexandria was held at Peabody Hall this morning at 10 o'clock, all the county teachers and all those from the city but one being present.

Superintendent Carver lectured on "The Teaching of History," taking the ground that history ought to be more thoroughly taught in the schools, and that teachers should make themselves very familiar with it. Without patriotism, he said, there could be no security for our free institutions, and patriotism must be taught, and could best be taught by a recurrence to the past in the study of history. He suggested the teaching of history in connection, as far as possible, with that of geography.

The next meeting was appointed for Saturday, April 17, subject: "How to Teach Geography."

After the adjournment the county teachers repaired to the Superintendent's office, where the new County Treasurer, Frederick R. Windsor, esp., was obliging on hand, and were paid their salaries for the last school month.

THE LATE ASSAULT.—Yesterday evening Dr. Foster, the man who was assaulted Thursday night, swore out a warrant before Justice O. C. Whitley, charging George Nowland and Robert Ballenger with a felonious assault upon him on the said night. The warrant was placed in the hands of Officer James Smith, who arrested the two men yesterday evening, about half past five o'clock, and took them before Mayor Smith, who continued the case until Monday next, at ten o'clock, releasing the persons on their own recognizance. Nowland, the man charged with striking Foster, was a private in the United States army during the late war.

IS THIS SO?—The confederate soldier who lost both legs in the late war, and who has been asked to give evidence in a "singing" show, was in this city to-day, receiving many evidences of the good will of our sympathetic people. He is the same man who has been seen in Pennsylvania avenue, in Washington, for some time past, and being asked this morning why he came to this city, replied that he remained there until he had been ordered to "move on," and then he came to Alexandria, by the police of that city. Is this so?

COUNTY COURT.—The March term of the County Court, Judge James Sangster presiding, will commence in this city Monday next. A special grand jury has been summoned, and the cases of Milly Holmes, for the murder of her infant child in Alexandria county, and Robert Wynn, for committing an assault upon Miss Josephine Cookling, at Arlington, will come up for trial.

THE VERNAL EQUINOX, which is the time when the sun passes through the equator in one of the equinoctial points, occurs to-morrow, and the days and nights will then be equal all over the world. This period is usually accompanied by storms, but on the other hand it marks the beginning of spring, and the long days and bright sunshine which are sure to follow are gladly welcomed.

MUSICAL.—The famous musical McGibeny family gave an entertainment at Sarepta Hall this afternoon, which was one of the best concerts ever given in this city. By special request they will give another entertainment here Monday night at Sarepta Hall. All who are fond of good music ought to be present.

To-morrow, in the Catholic church, calendar, is known as Palm Sunday, when palm is blessed by the clergy and distributed to the congregation.

Workingmen! Look to your interests and save doctor's bills by using Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

THE MARKET TO-DAY.—The bad weather which has prevailed for some time past has put early vegetables back somewhat, and in consequence the market this morning was poorly supplied with spring articles. The arrival of fish, also, on account of the weather, have been much smaller than was expected a few weeks ago; there was, however, a tolerably good supply on hand. Strawberries were very scarce, but what few there were met with slow sales at 25 cents per quart. There was not much poultry on hand, but the supply was equal to the demand. Turkeys sold at 16 cents per pound, chickens from 75 cents to $1 per pair, ducks 75 to 80 cents per pair. The supply of meats was of the usual excellence and variety with prices about the same as last Saturday. There were some benches devoted exclusively to potted flowers, which were well patronized. Apples sold at 50 cents per peck, sweet potatoes 40 cents per bushel, Irish potatoes 20 to 25 cents per peck, kale 20 cents per peck, radishes 4 cents per bunch, spring cabbages 3 cents per bunch, lettuce 4 to 5 cents per head, parsnips 25 cents per peck, early yorks 8 to 10 cents per head. Fish—shad 90 cents to $1 per pair, rock 75 cents per piece, white perch 40 to 50 cents per bushel, herring 25 cents per bushel, common fish 20 cents per bushel.

STREET BEGGARS.—Among the many beggars who frequent the streets daily at our doors soliciting alms is a little light complexioned, matty headed, unwashed white urchin, afflicted in dispirited clothing, who, by his pitiable story, has moved the compassion of many a housekeeper; but did they but once get a glimpse at the white woman who is generally in the neighborhood with him, their charitable feelings would instantly give way to wrath. She is a young woman, about 25 years old, stout and healthy looking, and her bodily appearance indicates the rare use of soap and water. This woman forces the little child to go to residences and knock, and solicit alms, while she keeps at a distance, and as soon as the boy emerges from the house she immediately follows him up and takes from him whatever he may have received. This is a real picture, and was witnessed this morning by several persons on Prince street.

AFFECTIONATE MEETING.—They arrived here on the Virginia Midland train, last night, a colored woman named Gordon, who had been sold away from this city twenty six years ago, since which time she had not seen any member of her family. When she arrived last night her brother, who lives in Fairfax county, was waiting to receive her. As soon as she spied him, she jumped from the train, and caught him around the neck, and hugged and kissed him, and cried and danced, and clapped her hands and shouted until a large crowd had congregated, but still she went on with her manifestations of joy, all unconscious of the looks on, until she was almost exhausted, when she was placed in a carriage and driven off, the happiest woman in all the world. Those who were present say they never witnessed such an affectionate meeting.

TEACHERS' MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.—The officers and directors of the Teachers' Mutual Life Insurance Company—Rev. Dr. Kirkland Nelson, president; Giles A. Penick, vice president; J. S. Blackburn, secretary; T. B. Barker, treasurer, and Messrs. L. M. Blackford, C. S. Taylor and K. Kemper, directors—not at the office of K. Kemper, clerk, yesterday evening, and completed the organization of the new company.

The constitution and by laws of the new organization were adopted, and the secretary directed to have the circulars and applications for membership printed at once. It was decided also to put the company in operation throughout the State immediately.

Dr. R. C. Powell was elected medical examiner, and the board adjourned.

FOUND DEAD.—A young man named David Brown came to the station house this afternoon and reported that while out going to-day, near Four Mile run, he discovered a white man lying in the road dead.

LOCAL BREVITIES.
A full photograph of Capt. F. L. Smith, in full uniform, is on exhibition in the window of S. Thompson & Co., on King street.

Mr. Charles B. Marshall is ill with the mumps.

The employees of the Virginia Midland Railroad were paid off to-day.

Rev. Mr. Graham will deliver his farewell sermon in this city, to-morrow, before leaving for his new charge, Montgomery, Ala.

Champ Handley denies the charge that he was the cause of the girl, Edith Burke, getting in trouble, and says that the story is the work of his enemies.

Stansbury & Bro. have received the contract for the new work on the Alexandria Light Infantry Armory.

The Finance Committee of the City Council met last night at the Mayor's Office.

The Fredericksburg Star says that the statement made by the two young men, who arrived in this city a few days ago, that they had been robbed at the station house in that town, is made up out of whole cloth.

Services will be held in Grace Church every morning next week at 8 o'clock.

Miss Lizzy Corkey, the daughter of Mr. Dennis Corkey, died at Herndon last Thursday after a short illness.

Baltimore, Md., June 15, 1879.
P. Warren, esq.—Sir: I have used your English Condition Powder on my own horse, and their effects superceeded anything I have ever seen. He was in a complete state of General Debility, and after using them a few times I could see the improvement, and he is now in perfect health and working hard every day. They give all my customers satisfaction.

A Duel.

A difficulty has been prevailing for some time in Brunswick county between R. A. Roney, a young lawyer, who was an active speaker on the readjusters' side in the late contest, and Richard Jolly, a traveling salesman for J. L. Moore & Co., who advocated the McCulloch bill for the settlement of the State debt. The original difficulty occurred in a political dispute and would have been settled on the spot but for the interference of mutual friends. The next day Mr. Jolly demanded satisfaction, and Mr. Roney promptly replied and referred Mr. L. Ashton Epperson, the second of Mr. Jolly, to Mr. Albert Mallory. The result was an agreement that the hostile meeting should take place March 13 in the county of Northampton, in North Carolina, and on the spot made famous as the fatal field of the Drumclog-Dugger duel. Information, however, reached the parties that their plans were known, and that a warrant had been issued for their apprehension. It was determined that the meeting should take place at once, and in Brunswick. The principals and seconds then repaired to an unfrequented spot near Smoky Ordinary. Doctors Powell, of Dinwiddie, and Batte, of Brunswick, and a few invited friends accompanied them. The weapons were the regular nine inch duelling pistols, the distance thirty paces. At the word "one" each gentleman fired. The bullet of Mr. Jolly passed through the crown of his antagonist's hat, severing a lock of hair. That of Mr. Roney inflicted a slight flesh wound in the right arm of Mr. Jolly above the elbow. The wound at first bled profusely, but the flow of blood was soon stopped. The wound is not dangerous. Notwithstanding the urgent entreaties of his friends and the advice of his second, Mr. Jolly demanded a second shot. This demand was on the point of being executed when Constable J. B. Mallory appeared on the scene, armed with a warrant, and prevented what might have been the fatal termination of the unfortunate affair. Messrs. Jolly and Roney were assigned before Justice T. F. Duane, and bailed in the sum of $300 for their appearance at the County Court next Monday. The principals, and all other witnesses of the affair, are unusually reluctant, but little additional can be known until developed at the trial. Neither Mr. Jolly nor Roney is yet thirty years of age. Each belongs to the best families in Brunswick, and neither is married. Mr. Jolly is considered one of the best pistol shots in the county. Each of the gentlemen is reported to have displayed the utmost fortitude under trying circumstances, and hopes of an honorable and amicable adjustment of the difficulty are yet entertained.—Richmond Whig.

GRAND SPRING OPENING.
—OF—
French Pattern Hats and Bonnets
AND ALL THE
NOVELTIES OF THE SEASON.
—AT—
KING'S PALACE,
311 Seventh street,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

On MONDAY and TUESDAY, March 22 & 23. Do not fail to see the Grand Display of MILLINERY GOODS ever exhibited to the public.

WE LEAD FOR THE FOLLOWING REASONS:
We keep the largest stock in Millinery this side of New York, for we make millinery a specialty. Our styles are always of the latest importation, our goods are the best and highest in quality, but low in prices. Being in the wholesale business, we sell goods at retail at wholesale prices. We can undersell and yet make a living profit. Our motto is QUICK SALES AND SMALL PROFITS.

We make it a specialty to please, deal fair and to retain our customers.

We are thankful for the great encouragement received, which has enabled us to do the largest millinery business in this District. We will strive in the future, as in the past, to be worthy of the great patronage extended to us.

We would kindly request our friends and the public not to miss the opportunity to inspect the most beautiful goods ever placed on exhibition. Our stock in Pattern Hats, Bonnets, Straw Goods, French Flowers, Satins, Silks, Ribbons, Laces, and known as the "Dressy, Fashionable, and the latest styles, and Corsets in fact, every article connected with a first class establishment. Our stock is immense; the entire second floor of King's Palace Hall will be devoted to our opening, and our wholesale department will be hereafter on the third floor.
